

2019-2020 K.1 admission arrangement

Dear parents :

We are here to welcome all the parents and children who have joined our school interview day , we hope that you are pleased of our school atmosphere of happiness, and also can feel up the kindness of our teachers and staffs. We are holding up our core value of education “Truth、Righteousness、Love、Family、Life ”to cultivate the children. We also attach importance to the cooperation between school and parents, for assisting the growing of the children, helping them to build up correct value set. Wish that parents can communicate more with school and participate the activities actively after you have become a member in our big family, and we hope parents can give more encouragement and support to the school as well.
